

Unit 6

Getting along with others

Sometimes I'm angry.
I shout at my friend.
But then I feel sad,
And my day is bad.

My mum says, "Don't worry.
Why don't you say sorry?
You can always find a way
To be kind every day."

Big question

How can you get along well with others?

Learning objectives

- ✓ To discuss how to get along with others
- ✓ To give advice to people about problems in their lives
- ✓ To put on a play about getting along with others

Get ready

- 1 Look at the picture. What story are the students watching?
- 2 Listen to the poem and read aloud. 🎧
- 3 Think about answers to the big question.

Cartoon time

Where's my food?

1 Bobby, Sam and Billy go for a picnic.

My bag is so heavy.
I'm very tired.

2

I can help! Let me take your bag.

Thank you, Sam!

3

Your bag isn't very heavy, Billy.

How come?

4

Great! I want to drink some water.

Why don't we have a picnic here?

5

Where's my food?

That's OK.

I'm sorry.

6

You can have some of my food.

Thank you!

And my food too!

7

Bobby, Sam and Billy are on their way back.

Look! There it is!
Now you can have my food.

Complete their dialogue.

- a Why don't we go there at four o'clock this afternoon?
- b Sure. I like reading in the library.
- c Why not go at four thirty?
- d Would you like to go to the library with me?
- e That's OK for me.

B Choose and act

Sometimes, there are some problems in our lives. What's your advice? Choose one card and act.

Your neighbour plays the piano every evening, but at that time you do your homework.

Your classmate uses your favourite pen. But now he can't find it.

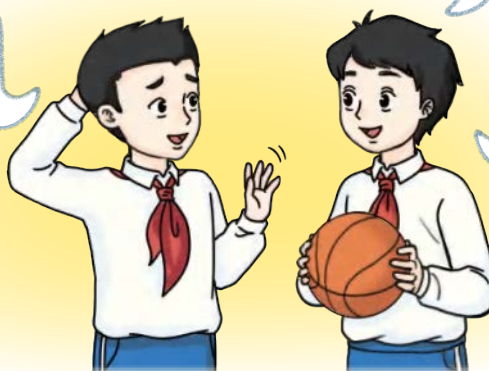

Your friend wants to play basketball with you after school, but you don't have time today.

What problem do you have with others?

Sorry, I don't have time. Why don't/not ...?

Let's play basketball after school!

...

What can you learn from your classmates' advice in part B?
