

Unit 8

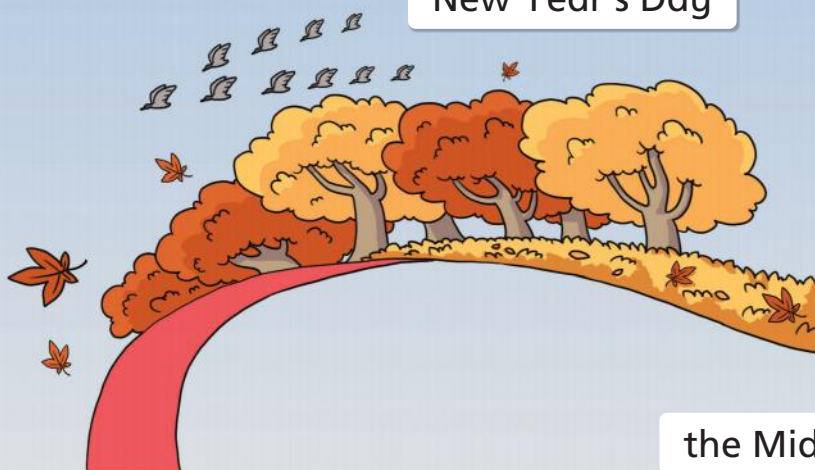

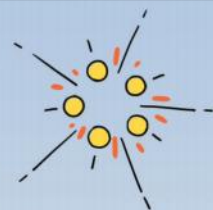

We love festivals!

New Year's Day

the Spring Festival

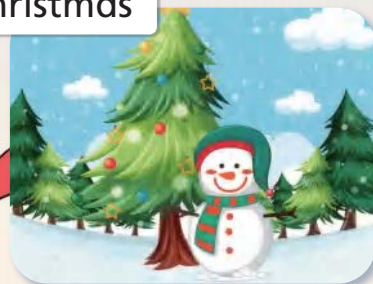

the Mid-Autumn Festival

the Double Ninth Festival

Christmas

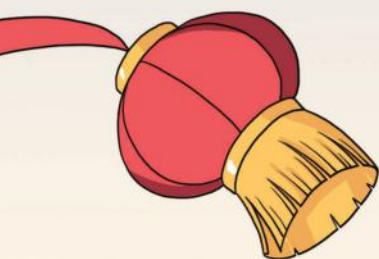

the Dragon Boat Festival

Learn about festivals around the world. See page 109.

Big question

How do you celebrate festivals?

Learning objectives

- ✓ To talk about what people do at a festival
- ✓ To compare festivals
- ✓ To introduce a festival to other people

Get ready

- 1 Look at the picture. What festivals can you see? Which one do you like best?
- 2 Listen to the passage. How do people celebrate New Year in these countries? 🎧
- 3 Think about answers to the big question.

Cartoon time

The Dragon Boat Festival

1 It's a sunny day and the sky is blue.

1 What do you know about the Dragon Boat Festival?

2

2 It's a Chinese festival.

3 It's in May or June.

1 What about you, Bobby?

2 We eat zongzi at this festival. Look!

4 Let's share!

Thank you, Bobby.

Delicious! I love this festival.

Delicious! I love
this festival.

Oh no! The ducks like it too!

How do Mrs Fox and her students celebrate the Dragon Boat Festival?

A Read and write

The Dragon Boat Festival

When to celebrate: in _____ or _____

What do to: have dragon boat _____

What to _____: zongzi

B Read and answer

- 1 Why does Billy say he loves the Dragon Boat Festival in picture 4?
- 2 Why does he say the ducks like the festival too in picture 5?
- 3 Do you like the festival? Why?

C Imagine and act

What could happen next? Continue the story and act it out.

Sounds in focus

- 1 Listen to the sentences from the story and read.
The sun is out and the sky is blue. Let's stop for a rest!
- 2 Listen to the rhyme and chant along. Then find more words.

I'm standing under a blue sky,
At a dragon boat race,
Spending time with my friends,
With a smile on my face.

sk

sky

sp

st

Story time

Time to celebrate

The Spring Festival, or Chinese New Year, is very important for Chinese people. It is in January or February. Before the festival, my family and I clean our house and put fu on our doors. On Chinese New Year's Eve, we have a big dinner at home. We eat jiaozi. Su Yang and I get red packets from our parents and grandparents. On Chinese New Year's Day, we watch a lion dance. We all have a good time at this festival.

Christmas is a big festival in the UK. It is in December. Before Christmas, we buy gifts for our family and friends. We also buy a Christmas tree. On Christmas Eve, Helen and I hang stockings on our beds. Then it is Christmas Day! We get up early and open our gifts. We eat turkey. Christmas is fun!

How do people celebrate the Spring Festival and Christmas?

A Read and choose

a eat jiaozi

b buy a Christmas tree

c put fu on doors

d eat turkey

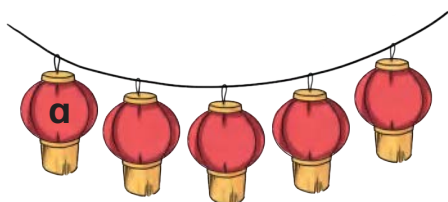

e hang stockings on beds

f get red packets

g watch a lion dance

h clean the house

i buy gifts for family and friends

B Compare and say

In what ways are the two festivals similar and different?

The Spring Festival

in January or February

important festivals

in December

Christmas

The Spring Festival and Christmas are both important festivals. ...

The Spring Festival is in ...
Christmas is in ...

C Think and make

How do you celebrate the Spring Festival? Make a poster and share it with the class.

Grammar time

in, on, at

It is in January or February.

There are dragon boat races in many places.

On Chinese New Year's Day, we watch a lion dance.

On Christmas Eve, Helen and I hang stockings on our beds.

We all have a good time at this festival.

On Chinese New Year's Eve, we have a big dinner at home.

A Read and complete

Mike is reading about different festivals around the world. Complete the sentences.

1 I love Children's Day. My classmates and I sing and dance _____ this day.

2 New Year's Day is an important festival _____ the UK.

3 The Double Ninth Festival is usually _____ October.

4 The Spring Festival is my favourite festival. I visit my grandparents _____ this festival.

B Make and say

Mike wants to know more about Chinese festivals. Choose one festival, make a card and introduce it to Mike. Use the example below to help you.

The Mid-Autumn Festival is a big festival in China. It's in September or October. At this festival, we eat mooncakes. We also look at the bright moon at night. I love this festival!

How do people celebrate different festivals?

Wrap-up time

Talk about your favourite festival

A Listen and tick

What do Liu Tao and his mother plan to do at the Double Ninth Festival?

- | | |
|---|--|
| ☐ make Chongyang cakes | ☐ go climbing |
| ☐ buy Chongyang cakes | ☐ go shopping |
| ☐ plant flowers | ☐ have a big dinner |
| ☐ go to see flowers | ☐ have a big party |

B Match, ask and answer

• the Double Ninth Festival •

• the Spring Festival •

• the Dragon Boat Festival •

• the Mid-Autumn Festival •

The festival is in January or February. People often eat jiaozi at this festival. Which festival is it?

It's the Spring Festival.

Yes, you're right!

C Think and write

My favourite festival

My favourite festival is _____. It is in _____.

At this festival, we usually _____.

We eat _____.

I like this festival best because _____.

Think and share

Look back through the unit. How do you celebrate festivals?

Assessment time

I can talk about what people do at festivals.

I can compare different festivals.

I can introduce a festival to others.

